Biography • Fereh

Yvonne Höft, known professionally as Fereh, was born in Stade, northern Germany.

Before studying illustration at the University of Applied Sciences in Hamburg, the trained bookseller worked as the head of the cookbook, health and children's audio book sections at the Thalia bookstore in Hamburg-Volksdorf and furthermore as a cook.

While still a student, she began working in art, illustration & writing in various fields such as fiction, non-fiction, editorial illustration, animation and logo design.

Besides continuously working on various own and collaborative artistic projects, Fereh has been writing for the magazine BÜCHER since late 2019. She was also part of the permanent drawing team at Lachsomat, a non-photorealistic portrait booth by art and design collective Der 6te Lachs (performances at the Hamburger Kunsthalle and the Bucerius Kunstforum, among others).

Since the beginning of 2025, she has been a jury member of the German Record Critics' Award for children's and youth recordings.
